FEATURES OF EXERCISES.

Music and Addresses June 2 at Training School Commencement.

Watt Terry of Brockton, Mass., is announced as the principal speaker at the commencement exercises of the National Training School for Women and Girls, Lincoln Heights, to be held Friday afternoon, June 2, at 5:30 o'clock. Music and orations by graduates are to be other features. The commencement exercises begin with a field day, which will consist of exhibitions and unveiling of the Lincoln bust, June 1, and end with graduating exercises June 2.

Rev. J. M. Waldron, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist Church, is to preach the baccalaureate sermon tomorrow afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. A meeting of the trustees of the institution is to be held Wednesday.

Students are enrolled from twenty-seven states and two foreign countries, and, according to the report of Miss Burroughs, president, the institution has been crowded during the entire year. An additional school has been rented and is used for dormitory purposes.

COMMUNITY FORUM PLANS.

Representatives and Senators Invited to Sunday Afternoon Meeting.

Members of the House District Committee and their wives and the senators and representatives who have made speeches at previous sessions of the Grover Cleveland Community Forum are to be the special guests at the last public meeting, which is to be held at 3 p.m. Sunday in the lecture hall of the central building of the Public Library.

Members of the board of Commissioners, board of education and the library board are also to be asked. Miss Margaret Wilson, honorary president, will preside; the subject for discussion will be "The Community Forum as a Means of Public Education" and the principal speakers will be Representatives Simpson of Mississippi, Lloyd of Missouri and Davenport of Oklahoma. Following their addresses five-minute speeches from the floor will be in order.

Miss Wilson and other officers of the forum are inviting its sustaining members to participate in an informal social evening at the Grover Cleveland School, 8th and T streets northwest, Wednesday evening.
